Family Involvement

A one-way relationship where schools set the agenda and families follow.

What it Looks Like:

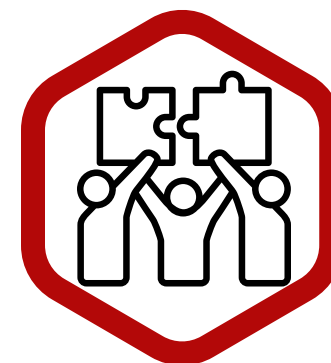

Attending conferences or school events
Volunteering for fundraisers or field trips
Responding to school requests
Ensuring homework is completed

Family Engagement

A two-way partnership where families and schools work together as equals to support student success.

What it Looks Like:

Families help shape school decisions
Teachers ask for family insight into students
Learning connects to home life and culture
Goals are set collaboratively for the student
