We cannot identify with others without building connections first. We will never see ourselves in others if we never take a second to self-reflect.

Our stories unite us all - from child to parent, from parent to families, engaging communities, and building bridges.

We will write, speak, and celebrate ONE word at TIME. Are you ready to build?

CHOOSE ONE WORD. CONNECT WITH YOUR CHOICE.

Take a few minutes to brainstorm. Write down any words, images, and thoughts that come to mind. When you are ready, write a ten page story about your word.
Just kidding! Let's start with ten lines.
