SAM BROWN

Sam Brown is a speaker and author who creates experiences to equip individuals with the tools to navigate life's transitions through identity development and storytelling. His work focuses on helping people move from simply experiencing life to becoming the author of their own story.

Driven by his own experiences with homelessness and the loss of his parents, Sam understands what it means to grow up in the middle of life's storms feeling disconnected, lost, and uncertain about who you are or where you're going. He brings a deep, personal understanding of what it takes to navigate through the eye of a storm and grow through transitional moments.

Through his storytelling and real-life strategies, Sam equips audiences with the mindset and tools to build confidence, navigate change, and develop resilience. As part of the CoolSpeak team, Sam creates spaces where students feel seen and capable of moving forward. They leave with more than motivation; they gain tools to withstand any of life's challenges and become truly storm resistant.

"What felt different was Sam's ability to truly vibe with the students while still maintaining substance and purpose. He didn't just speak at them, he interacted with them, created energy, and made them feel seen. What stood out most was how intentional Sam was in building trust, encouraging vulnerability, and creating a safe environment where students could grow."

Holli Black
Associate Director,
Holman Success Center
Eastern Michigan University

"Sam was relatable, engaging, and demonstrated a level of passion that resonated with our students. Not only did he have a great message about perseverance, motivation, and healing, he encouraged our students to think about their own legacies. Sam was great to work with prior to the program to map out what is needed and still stays in touch with students and attends programs to support their continued growth."
